

For Immediate Release

North Carolina Mutual Insurance Agency Welcomes Deirdre Rushin

Durham, NC (June 24, 2015) – North Carolina Mutual Insurance Agency, a subsidiary of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, welcomes sales agent Deirdre Rushin to their independent agent office at Holloway Suites, 2425 Highway 55 in Durham. Ms. Rushin provides clients with an array of products including life, health, long-term care, property and casualty, disability and medical supplemental insurance.

Before joining North Carolina Mutual Insurance Agency, Ms. Rushin was employed with State Farm Insurance. She holds a bachelor's degree in social work from Western Michigan University and a master's degree in social work from Wayne State University in Detroit.

"I'm excited to be working with North Carolina Mutual Insurance Agency, and to offer my clients financial services that help them protect their futures," Ms. Rushin said. "Our wide range of products can help individuals and families build wealth for retirement, provide education and plan for major financial losses in the event of death or disability."

North Carolina Mutual Insurance Agency is a subsidiary of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, the nation's oldest and largest insurance company with roots in the African American community. The North Carolina Mutual family of companies offers important financial services through companies and programs such as North Carolina Mutual Financial, a funeral funding company providing advance funding to funeral homes, and North Carolina Mutual Insurance Agency, a full-service insurance agency providing products, including life, health, auto, home and business insurance, from a variety of carriers. Since its founding 116 years ago in Durham, North Carolina Mutual has built a reputation for the personalized service it provides its customers.

###